Ricans' Vengeance San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 16.-More depredations are reported to have ocourred in the neighborhood of Utuado. Several Spanish hactendas and cafetals have been burned and two Spanish planters killed. These outrages are attributed to the lower classes of the natives, actunted by a spirit of revenge, and a law-less gang of brigands which has been operating near Cialce. The Spanish plant ers fear for their lives and are extremely anxious that the Americans should obtain control in order to afford them pro tection, as the United States is powerless now to preserve order in places within the Spanish lines. Upon petition of practically all of the residents of Utuado. General Henry has displaced the old alcalde and appointed Senor Rameiro Marinas, who has inaugurated an American regime and has held an election for all municipal officers, including policemen.
